Isomer Ratios

Spex CertiPrep is able to help analytical chemists identify and quantify the isomers and isomer ratios in their analysis by providing isomer data for known isomeric compounds. Our compound isomer library continues to grow and we are constantly adding new materials to our database to meet our customers' needs.

The included list below shows chemicals for which we offer isomer ratios. Interested in a custom that contains these compounds, or standards that contain single isomers of any of these compounds? Contact us at +1.732.549.7144 or via email at spexsales@antylia.com.
